INTRODUCTION:

Given that modern science evaluates the Earth's age to around 450 million years, it already has a long history. Furthermore, archaeological, anthropological and ethnological evidences, in many cases, occulted to the public, as well as passages of the most important Sacred Scriptures, indicate that our world has been visited and colonized by beings from outer space, since about 250,000 years ago. Among those visitors, there were human-like and zoomorphic races, with reptile, feline and insect appearances, among others, from the Constellation of Orion, such as the Anunakis who founded Sumer and Babylon. On the other hand, beings from The Pleiades, founded Hyperborea and Atlantis, while others, from Sirio (Canis Major) and the Constellation of Lira founded the Lemurian Civilization, on the continent called 'Mu'.

Those civilizations brought plant species along, meanwhile other spores and seeds were carried by asteroids and meteorites that impacted the Earth, at some moment of its proto-history. Then, these species developed, in our world and, with time, they diversified, to form the present-day flora.

Since the fragmentation of the Pangea; a gigantic and single mass of firm land, surrounded by water, the constant drifting process of tectonic plates, in the Earth's crust, got to form continents, by means of changes, either slow and imperceptible, or convulsive and catastrophic. Indeed, it is time we'd recognize that this planet is a live being which, whether we want it or not, fulfills its own evolutionary cycles determined by the cyclical dynamics of the solar system it pertains to, as well as by cycles proper to other stellar systems and their influences, in the Rotating Galaxy, called 'Milky Way', that is one of the millions of components of the Universe in which it is situated, and interacts with.

Thus, with these general guidelines and, further along, more precise data, we'll be able to have a better idea of humanity's evolutionary process, including that of the Inkan Culture, within the frame of its dynamics of constant changes, through successive mutation and hybridization stages that turned it into what is today's modern Peruvian Culture.

In addition, this appendix projects us towards the essential evolutionary steps that will allow a portion of humanity to give birth to a new unified planetary and cosmic civilization. In fact, today, we already can take advantage of the exceptional evolutionary opportunity a cosmic conjecture is offering us, through the inexorable elevation process of Atomic Vibratory Frequency, in the solar system, planet and human being, in an Ascending Dynamics, towards the Fifth Dimension, as the planet enters the Tenth Pachakuti which, according to Inkan Tradition and Cosmogony, is a Positive Evolutionary Cycle, of Light, combined with the entry of the whole

Solar System, in the Photon Belt generated by Alcyon; the main star of The Pleiades' Constellation which the Sun belongs to.

Then, in the sequence, we'll synthesize about 25,000 years of planetary and human history, either, little known, or still kept secret, as well as accepted by certain scholarly circles or, otherwise, published on a massive scale. However, we must warn, and take into account, that much information, delivered to the public, has been manipulated, whether intentionally or not. Indeed, the dire millenary elites, who are still ruling this world, always intend securing the Monopoly of Absolute Power, by keeping for themselves the best this planet has had, and still has to offer. That way, they hide, distort and modify elements of history, to serve their interests, without the least concern about common people's destiny, given that they consider us as mere rats which they submit to their experiments, in accordance with their plans, in their great planetary laboratory.

A BIT OF ANTEDILUVIAN HISTORY:

To support this section of the present appendix, we have based ourselves upon the research of Madame Helena Petrovna Blavatsky, in the 19th and beginning of the 20th centuries, as well as on those led by the Anglo-American Colonel, James Churchward (1854-1936), those of Georges Cuvier, a French naturalist and zoologist (1769-1832), of British geologist, William Blanford (1832-1905), of Abbe Brasseur, Austrian paleontologist, Neumayr (1845-1890), German biologist, Ernst Heinrich Haeckel (1834-1919), of Sir Aurel Stein, explorer and archaeologist, at the beginning of the 20th century, of British zoologist, Philip L. Sclater (1829-1913), of the San José Rosicrucian Congregation, in California, of John Anthony West, in the first half of the 20th century, of Carl Sagan (1934-1996), a famous astronomer, astrophysicist, cosmologist, writer and scientific publisher, of L. Sprague De Camp, Hwee-Yong Jang, and ex Jesuit, Lucas Marton, among many others.

These data, referring to Mu and, later on, to Lemuria, give tips regarding its past existence and geographic situation, as well as about the important influence its inhabitants had on the development of great 'mother civilizations' that flourished in the ancient world, and engendered 18 'daughter civilizations', one of which was the Inkan Civilization.

We also have resorted to data revealed through channeling sessions conducted by Robert Shapiro and Lyssa Royal Holt that describe the features of the stellar races, proceeding from Lira, Sirio and The Pleiades, who constituted one of the seven Root Races that colonized Mu, many thousands of years ago.

According to this research and channeling sessions, Mu existed in the North-west of what we presently call the Pacific Ocean, in the geographical area currently occupied by Malaysia, Java, Borneo, Indonesia, Polynesia, Micronesia and several island archipelagos considered among the world's most enchanting and enigmatic places. Initially, Mu was a gigantic territory which, according to what could be verified, by means of numerous evidences found on the islands that are its last remains, has seen the development and flourishing of the Mother of Civilizations, on Earth, about 25,000 years ago.

Unfortunately, this powerful and so advanced civilization met its end, in a great cataclysm that sank it, together with most of its vast territory, leaving barely a few fragments and scarce physical testimonies of its grandeur and splendor, to posterity.

In the meantime, the survivors of that catastrophe settled in different regions of the planet, where they gave impulse to other great civilizations, among which appears the famous Civilization, Culture and City of Tiahuanaco, on what currently is the Bolivian High Plateau, nearby Lake Titicaca's area, that apparently was founded by Master and High Priest Aramu Muru; one of the survivors of the final destruction of Mu's geophysical remainder, known, today, as 'Lemuria'.

So, this is where this appendix starts to connect with the present work, while leaving the care and responsibility of its content to its author, which, although of novelistic appearance and, even, with hues of fantasy, presents a plot that corresponds to a deeper reality, lived by the Andean people, since millennia, which a reader, without proper preparation and personal field experience, with Andean Initiates, could not perceive, grasp and comprehend, in its full extent, given the Sacred aspect of its messages and teachings, of great value, as much for yesterday's humanity, as for that of today and tomorrow.

THE HOLLOW EARTH AND INTRA-TERRESTRIAL WORLD ARE A PROVEN REALITY:

Today, only incredulous, skeptics, Cartesians and hard-core rationalists, as well as individuals who didn't have the opportunity to have access to these data, or never showed interest for researching related information, can still deny, reject or ignore the fact that all of our solar system's planets are hollow, on their inside, and have polar openings that serve as main access ways, between their external and inner surfaces.

Therefore, the Earth possesses an opening at each pole, although that of the North Pole is of greater size, especially in the Arctic Summer, when the ice cap thaws away, sufficiently, so that water channels open-up, amidst its icy masses, and interconnect the outer world with the inner one, by sea. For example, at the end of the 19th century, Olaf Jansen and his father; two Norwegian fishermen took advantage of them, to sail aboard their small fishing boat, into the Earth's entrails. Besides, it is possible to penetrate inside the planet, on a plane, by flying over the North Pole, with the sole guidance of the altimeter, as U.S. Navy Admiral Richard E. Byrd did, in 1947.

Then, there have been German expeditions to the South Pole, with ships, hydroplanes and submarines, during World War II, that managed to reach the Intra-Terrestrial World, without mentioning so many others that led several countries to claim a piece of the 'Frozen Continent', and perform scientific experiments, in parallel with evident military activities which indicate their great interest in observing what is going on there, as the Antarctic's continuous defrost is revealing clear evidences that this continent was inhabited, in a remote past, by a more advanced civilization than ours, which interests them a whole lot. On the other hand, there are pictures, taken by satellites, of the Earth's polar openings, as well as of those of other planets of the solar system, that have recently been released.

Besides, apart from the fact that the Dalai Lama is that intra-terrestrial civilization's Official Representative, in our outer surface world, there are quantities of physical proof, and some testimonies of polar explorers, from the 19th and beginning of 20th centuries, that give us irrefutable proof of the existence of a world and advanced civilization, in this planet's inner side, that has been hidden to public knowledge, until recently.

Indeed, the powerful, who impose their law in the Outer World, do not want common people to have the least opportunity to get in touch with their Inner World's Elder Brothers who are much more evolved than we are, because this would cause our leaders' hegemony of terrestrial power to collapse, given that the Intra-Terrestrial World's wise and peaceful inhabitants, who are Fifth Dimension beings, in their majority, possess technologies, powers and knowledge by far superior to those handled on the surface, and do not want little evolved humans to generate conflicts in their world.

Actually, those Elder Brothers are descendants of survivors of the catastrophes that annihilated great parts of Mu, Hyperborea, Atlantis and other territories of which, today, only islands remain. Then, the minority of inhabitants of the Inner World, called 'Agartha', is composed of human beings, admitted there, who are being prepared, to reach more advanced evolutionary levels.

Therefore, the wisest of those Brothers, who live in Shambalah; Agartha's Capital City, are the planet's Guardians who take care of it, from within, thanks to their telepathic and astral projection skills and, outside, by means of occasional outings, aboard their crafts that common people generally confuse with those of 'extraterrestrials'.

In these journeys, towards the planet's surface, the Intra-Terrestrials take advantage of the polar openings or, otherwise, of tunnels that interconnect strategic points, in their world, with cave systems located in little frequented places, on the surface, so as to observe human activity, every time they judge it important to do so, without, for that much, intervening, unless the situation demands it, as the Ayar Brothers did, in the present work.

THE BEGINNING OF THE TENTH PACHAKUTI, AND THE GOLDEN AGE:

The present work's mythical and historical context situates itself between about 5,000 years ago, at the dawn of the development of the Aymara Nation, considered to be at the origin of the Inkan people, and the 12th century, with the foundation of Qosqo (Cusco), during a time period the Andean Cosmogony calls 'Pachakuti' which is a Planetary Cycle of about 500 years.

Back then, the Inkan Civilization and Culture enjoyed the Eighth Pachakuti's good auspices of Light and Prosperity, as it lasted, more or less, until 1492, when the Spaniards got to the Americas, changing that continent's course of history forever and, especially, since Francisco Pizarro's arrival, in 1532, on Peru's North-west coast, accompanied by 177 well-armed officials and soldiers, mounted on horses. Then, with great cunning, and the help of thousands of natives opposed to Inkan presence on their land, they managed to defeat and submit the powerful Inkan Empire and people, in just a few years, to impose their law, supremacy and hegemony, with brutal and sanguinary force, on their territory.

Thus, it is considered that the Ninth Pachakuti was a dark episode, of much suffering, pain, sacrifice and renouncement for the Inkan people who had to bear the worst atrocities, throughout the whole Transition Period, Vice Royalty and Colony.

Then, the Republic came about, during which racial and ethnic discrimination remained well-marked, and mistreatment of natives, on the part of Spanish descendants and Creoles, was commonplace and totally normal, within that time's social context. In fact, even today, that kind of idiosyncrasy and behavior still exist, although mitigated by a greater access to education, information and contact with people proceeding from other realities, as well as thanks to society's globalization that forces the individual to evolve towards a more respectful and tolerant way of thinking, acting and relating with members of Peru's native population, whether on the Coast, in the Andes or Jungle.

Now, the Tenth Pachakuti, also called 'Warmi Pachakuti', due to the preponderant role women will play, during this new cycle, was declared, by the ancient Inkan Amautas (Wise men), as one of Light, Peace and World Reunification, through unconditional Love and Free Sharing of Universal Knowledge.

It began in 1992 and, in 2020, its initial development phase is in full vigor, to set and strengthen the bases of the New Humanity that is arising, with the Children of the Fulfillment of Prophecies, announced, with great hope and eagerness, for a better future, by wise men who could visualize forthcoming events, and verbally communicated these prophecies, from generation to generation, 'till their accomplishment, for the good of all.

So, today, even if everything is collapsing, and the Traditional Native American Order seems to be in greater danger than ever, to disappear, there is a growing rebirth current that defends and protects its ancestral values, in spite of the strong opposition it still faces.

In fact, that new current is led by the guardians of those values and knowledge which they are sharing with those who deserve to receive them, so that they might subsist and prevail, once again, with the necessary adaptations, at the historical moment in which the 'Inkarri', or Return of the Inka, as Sovereign, will have come, and that Peru's present native nations might retake their own evolutionary trajectory, after that so long and painful historical pause that cost them so much to withstand, during five centuries.

However, the positive side of that immense sacrifice is that it gave the native nations of Amaruca (America) the strength and determination to mix with other bloods, in their long gestation and engendering process of the New Humanity, on the whole American continent, meanwhile they went on struggling for their true sovereignty, in a world that is changing so fast that it no longer leaves space for Life, as it ought to be lived, and be respected.

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE PLEIADES, IN INKAN ASTRONOMY:

In the course of the 20th century and, up to present, numerous specialists, in different disciplines, studied the Inkan Civilization and Culture, under almost all of its known aspects, including valuable research on astronomy which the Inkas considered as a Major Science, as it allowed them to set the key dates of the year, especially for agriculture and the most important ceremonies related, or not, with it. Furthermore, it is known that the Inkas very closely observed the movements and characteristics of certain constellations, such as The Pleiades, for example, which they called 'Qolqa' (Grain Sill or Agricultural Product Warehouse).

Indeed, as it is known, the Inkan people would give a Major Cult to Tayta Inti, or Father Sun, who was their Tutelary Divinity, while the Inkan royalty and blood nobility venerated Wirakocha; their Supreme God and World Creator. Thus, the Inkan astronomers used to observe the Sun, from closer-up than any other celestial body. This leads us to suppose that they might have known that the Sun and its planets are part of The Pleiades' Constellation; a fact that was scientifically verified by Sir Edmund Halley and, later on, with more precision, by other astronomers. That way, it was possible to conclude that the Sun occupies the seventh orbit, in relation with that constellation's other stars, although its ecliptic is differentiated, with due respect to its axis and trajectory, which could give the false impression that it is not part of Qolqa.

Therefore, 'The Seven Sisters', as the Andean people call The Pleiades' stars, or main suns, have occupied a privileged place, regarding their astronomical study, given that their observation was directly linked to rainfalls, sowing seasons and harvests. This is why that constellation was considered as the 'Mother of Stars', and the most important one in astronomy related to agriculture, in Inkan times.

However, it isn't known whether the Inkan astronomers were aware of the presence and influence of Alcyon's Photon Belt, as it is the Largest Star in The Pleiades' Stellar and Planetary System, the other main stars of which are: Merope, Atlas, Maya, Electra, Coele, Taigeta and the Sun that bears the name of 'Ors'. But, they might have had knowledge of that phenomenon, given that Alcyon is a much larger star than the Sun, and that it is possible that its photon belt might have been visible to the naked eye, unless they might have known its existence through advanced teachings in astronomy, revealed by Masters who carried a rich and broad ancestral knowledge, transmitted since immemorial times.

What is for sure is that The Pleiades have always had a special place in important Inkan temples, such as the Qorikancha (Temple of the Sun), in Cusco, where they had their own temple, or in Machu Picchu, for example, as those also served as astronomical observatories that allowed astronomers and priests to coordinate key dates, especially regarding the celebration of important ceremonies that, in certain cases, were performed on-site.

Finally, there are still many enigmas to be elucidated, in relation with the mysterious Inkan Culture and its astronomical practices, as well as about the real knowledge the Amautas (Wise Scientists) possessed of the Cosmos and its influences on the planet's destiny, and that of humanity. However, as modern researchers and scientists are progressing in their tireless quest for the truth, by means of trustworthy evidences, doubts and mistakes are being swept away, to yield way to an ever clearer and more complete image of the Inkan Nation's life, and of how its people would carry it out.

FROM THE DENSEST, TO THE MOST SUBTLE MATTER, EVERYTHING IS ENERGY:

Before approaching the topic related to the vibrational influence of Alcyon's Photon Belt, in our planetary environment, it is important to open a parenthesis that will allow those who are interested in the Ascension Process, to better understand the reasons for which fundamental changes are essential, and necessary, in all structures and life forms, as much on the planet, as in the beings that inhabit it, so that this process might take place, given that it already is on its way, and is inexorable.

First, we already know that all matter, whether solid, liquid, gaseous or energetic, is composed of atoms that are mainly formed by structured energy, in movement, that vibrates in a broad spectrum of measurable frequencies that differentiate one type of matter from another, and make it so that the reality our five common senses allow us to perceive and experience, might be what it is.

Now, if an individual, or human collective body, is mentally and physically conditioned by some mass manipulation system, to only be able to perceive and experience a certain range of vibrational frequencies, corresponding to a limited set of Time Lines, or realities, as is the present case of the great majority of human beings, obviously, that limitation will not allow them to connect with Superior Consciousness Levels, as well as with more subtle realities that escape their common senses, when these aren't trained or properly tuned, to perceive them.

So, if we want to free ourselves from that dimensional 'matrix' that keeps us jailed in a very limited and evermore controlled range of perception and live experience, we must open our mind to the unknown, seek our Inner Connection, through meditation, for example, and activate our Superior Consciousness which is the Subtle Channel that unites our physical, energetic, emotional, mental and spiritual bodies to the Soul that is always connected with Superior Levels of Consciousness and Life.

Perhaps that description might seem a bit complex and, even, incomprehensible, to certain people, and that is perfectly understandable. So, we'll try to simplify that metaphysical concept, to make it more accessible to a broader public.

If we manage to set aside almost all of what we have learned, and believe to be real, up to this point; that is, if we get to set our mind in a blank state for a sufficient amount of time, in a repetitive and regular manner, through meditation and application of mental reprogramming, visualization or 'mentalizing' methods, we will have already taken an important step.

Indeed, this will allow us to progressively open new perception channels that, up to then, had remained inactive, and we'll be able to have access to new realities, or Time Lines, that will allow us to connect with Superior Sources of Knowledge, by means of Awakened and Expanded Consciousness States. In fact, this will help us, tremendously, on our Evolutionary Path, and preparation process for Ascension to the Fifth Dimension which constitutes our next evolutionary step.

Obviously, any achievement requires a certain amount of effort and perseverance, to reach it. Indeed, the few people who already have opened that Ascension Path know what it takes to reprogram their mind and body, to broaden their Consciousness Field, and be live examples of that Evolutionary Process, for those who seek it, or are in early stages of that Luminous Path Back Home.

ALCYON'S PHOTON BELT AND THE ASCENSION TO THE FIFTH DIMENSION:

First, we'll begin this section with a bit of simplified astronomy, to better comprehend what is happening, beyond our planetary environment, as well as here, on Earth.

Today, everyone knows that the Earth is part of a solar system located in a rotating galaxy, popularly known as 'Milky Way'. However, what few do know is that the Sun, that gives us light, is the eighth star of The Pleiades' Constellation that gathers seven main stars, or suns, each one with its own set of planets, or solar system. So, the Sun and its planets are part of that constellation, although its ecliptic doesn't follow the same trajectory as its sister stars.

When we study the Andean and Inkan Cosmogony, we realize that the wise people, of Peru's ancient cultures, used to venerate The Pleiades' Constellation, and would keep a narrow Spiritual and Sacred Communication with those Seven Sister Stars, through astronomical observations, of great precision, as well as with ceremonies and rituals that allowed them to remain connected with what they considered as the Constellation of their Cosmic Origins.

If we take a keener look at that constellation, we see that Alcyon; its Largest Star, is a sun that is much larger and more powerful than the Sun we all know. So, just as the Sun does, Alcyon irradiates photons that are luminescent particles containing all the elements necessary for Life, in the form of energy, which, in the case of that great star, vibrate in a much higher frequency range than the photons emitted by the Sun.

Due to the differentiated ecliptic followed by the solar system, in which the Earth is located, it goes through two prolonged periods, of about 10,800 years of exposition to what is called 'The Galactic Night', at the end of which it once again penetrates the irradiation field of Alcyon's Photon Belt, for a time period of about 2,160 terrestrial years.

In fact, that famous entry took place on December 21, 2012; date on which 'the end of the world' had erroneously been predicted and, obviously, didn't happen, given that the Mayan calendar simply indicated the end of an Astrological Era, with the passage from the Era of Pisces to that of Aquarius, in terms of occidental astrology, and not the end of the world.

Thus, from that date on, the Earth's whole orbit, and the Sun's full mass, are included and interpenetrated by Alcyon's constant photonic irradiation field, which generates strong reactions, on the Sun's part, against that energetic 'invasion', of much higher Fifth Dimension vibrational frequencies, whereas the Sun's photons are of Third and Fourth Dimension.

Besides, since that date, a clear increase in the frequency, strength and intensity of natural, seismic, volcanic and climatic phenomena, on Earth, indicates that the planet is reacting and adapting to that evermore massive and dense photonic influence that impulses it to align with that new vibrational, energetic and dimensional context.

Finally, if we consider the measurement of the terrestrial magnetic field's activity, denominated 'Schumann's Resonance', we realize that the Earth's rotating speed, on its own axis, went from a frequency of 7.8 to one of 12 Hertz, which means that the planet accelerated its rotation speed, in the past years. So, now, time goes by faster than 50 years ago, and the day's normal 24 hours have converted themselves into the past's time-value of 16. Therefore, it's as though the day would have 8 hours less than before, meanwhile that acceleration indicates that the planet is also preparing itself for its own Ascension to the Fifth Dimension.

Now, let's talk about Alcyon, its Photon Belt, and the Solar System's Ascension, as well as about that of the Earth and of all its life forms, to the Fifth Dimension.

First, let's remember that, since 2012, our planet's whole orbit is included in the irradiation field of Alcyon's Photon Belt, which makes it so that its energetic influence, of Fifth Dimension vibrational frequencies, is slowly generating unavoidable changes, on a planetary level, that are necessary in the adaptation process of the planet which is inexorably aligning with that new dimensional reality, to go on with its evolutionary course towards the Fifth Dimension.

So, much of what is happening today, in the world and humanity, simply is the product and consequence of an energetic re-calibration, under the growing influence of evermore dense photon layers, of Fifth Dimension vibrational frequencies, emitted by Alcyon, so that this solar system might also have its chance to evolve, and ascend, from the Third and Fourth Dimensions, towards the Fifth.

Thus, we are fortunate to live in these times of deep changes, although, without doubt, they might be quite painful, especially for those who are not ready or prepared to align with the new Fifth Dimension's energetic pattern which offers that unique and historical Evolutionary Opportunity to the humans who are preparing themselves, or are ready to accompany that Ascension Process, towards a Superior Reality, as it ought to last two human generations, or around 50 years, to complete itself, in a natural way.

So, it's useless to pay too much attention to all of those 'natural catastrophes', wars, pandemics and other planetary phenomena that obsess the human mass that is still 'asleep' and unconscious of its Stellar Origins and Divine Nature.

We only need to be conscious of the reasons why all of this is happening, and remain focused on our individual preparation process, while seeking help from our Elder Brothers, and helping those who ask for help, on their own Evolutionary Path, every time we can, within a Collective Consciousness frame, on a planetary and extra-planetary level that allows us to ever get better anchored in that new vibrational and dimensional reality.

Yes, indeed, this is the best piece of advice that can be given to anyone, in this critical and exceptional moment in which we have the Divine Bliss of being able to actively participate in the Earth's unavoidable Ascension, as it is inexorably following its Evolutionary Process towards the Fifth Dimension, while it eliminates and transmutes all of what no longer corresponds to the new vibratory reality towards which it is ascending.

Obviously, it is possible that these words might upset many people, whose Multi-Dimensional Consciousness has not yet awakened, or is recently awakening. But, in the Cosmos and multiple universes, there are multitudes of evolutionary opportunities, for all life forms, in numerous dimensions and infinite worlds. Therefore, the myriads of beings, that won't follow this evolutionary step, will have to reincarnate, to go on evolving, within the vibratory frequency and reality that corresponds to them, in some part of the Infinite Cosmos.

EXCERPTS, WITH SOME [ADENDAS], FROM A MESSAGE

TELEPATHICALLY SENT BY ATHOS, FROM THE INTRA-TERRESTRIAL WORLD OF AGARTHA,

AND CHANNELED BY ANALÍA MARTINI,

DURING THE LATIN AMERICAN 'LIGHT NETWORK' ENCOUNTER,

IN THE CITY OF MAR DEL PLATA, ARGENTINA, ON NOVEMBER 28, 2009

Brothers [and Sisters], here I am with you. I Am Athos.

...Contact is imminent, and you are [telepathically] receiving it, as totally correct information, especially if you can refrain from thinking, judging and cataloging the information, as you have been taught to do it, [by the system you live in].

In order for those Superior Dimensional realities to start manifesting, in a consensual manner, for most of you, it is first necessary that you should give your consent, and really get rid of any preconceived idea you might have sheltered. Remember that it was an intelligent way of having all, and each single one of you, believing in the fact that reality is manifesting itself, in a static and equal way, for all, and that, in reality, it depends on how each one connects, from their creating center, creating and recreating what later on manifests on the outside.

Nowadays, due to the profuse quantity of information that circulates, you are being exhorted to really center on what the heart indicates, to see where that information comes from.

Much disguised information has been infiltrated, as well, in an intentional way, using the Hierarchies' common language, but articulating, or intending to, once again, remove you from your center, [to] put power on the outside, and force you to feel totally paralyzed, with due respect to the imminence of the facts, or their results.

So, it is very important that, when you receive the information, you check how comfortable you feel with it, because that is the only way you will have, to accredit or discredit it and, that way, this is how each one will accede to a Superior Consciousness Level.

Believe us that the ever more intense information bombardment tends to be each time greater and, in all of that whirlwind, the misinformation and biased information is more prone to manifest itself.

Remember that there are no single or set paths: There are so many ways to 'ascend', as beings, on the planet and, even more so, in the Universe. Neither do we want to be objects of adoration or reverence. Once again, this is another artificially implanted feature, to concede power to whoever is outside the Being, and not within.

Remember that we simply are your Elder Brothers, with the same genetics, but that, thanks to careful work, performed within ourselves, and the others, we have managed to concretely manifest this enchanting place we all long for, from the heart.

In the past, we have shared the conscious filiation of this place, and that information is now within you, and this is why there is so much familiarity.

Do not discredit the information you receive, inwardly. Each one creates their surroundings, in the most convenient way, and [those] they feel more comfortable with: Some project images, others build words, and others rejoice in colors, sounds and aromas. All of these forms of manifestation of the Divinity are facets of the same thing and, eventually, we shall all be in conditions to be able to live the full palette of possible experiences. In the meantime, if it is not each one who first validates that internal information, thanks, above all, to a loving posture, with due respect towards oneself, it won't be possible to transcend the current level. This means that love, towards your selves, is imperious.

Let's not confuse aspects related to pride or arrogance that are exclusive of the ego's area. Let's simply go to the full recognition of the Divinity, in each one, to directly connect with the Divine Essence that unites us all, like brothers [and sisters] and, from there, experience one or another situation, letting life flow, freely, so that it might constantly recreate itself, that way. As long as we are in this manifested Universe, that way of circulating is aligned with an elevated degree of frequency that excludes the experience of pain and resistance. Someday, we'll experience the Absolute, for as long as we first recognize God, within ourselves and, from there, in our brother [or sister], along that path we are treading on.

If many people do this, it will then be possible to establish a new idea of Earth, in a consensual way, because everyone will resound with a different frequency, and each one will go on with their manifested existence, in accordance with the vibration that unites them to it. That way, knowing that, within the plot of reality, the realization of different alternatives is constant, always polarize your attention on that which is more aligned with your highest wisdom, and know that there always are alternatives... Then, let that Essence which you have first recognized, interpret and decide for you, for your most elevated own good.

Connect with the idea of the Intra-Terrestrial World, and know that, there, in that idea you are manifesting, you shall be accompanied, from the thought and intention. This won't be the first time we make contact, as it will be evermore assiduous, open and recognized... We know, with certainty, that all are potentially ready for the personal encounter, and it will take place. Remember, first, always inside and, from there, towards the outside.

The more rooted you are to family structures, or known and established institutions, the more prone will you be to suffering. Eliminate resistance, and you will eliminate pain. Let it flow. Remember, we all are travelers, in this experience, and embrace the differences, because, in reality, we all are ONE.

These words and this message operate on different levels of existence and, furthermore, they'll go on working, from the unconscious level, installing that subtle frequency in your emotional and mental fields, to help, in the mental area, to the breaking-down of old and stagnant structures that do not allow you to connect with your highest potential and, from the emotional level, to heal everything that needs to be repaired, because, only in a unified and full energetic field, is it possible to manifest a more perfectible state. But, remember, once again, that this work is always from inside, towards the outside.

We love you, deeply, and are very happy with this contact. Do not fear to resolve, in the practical aspect, all that obeys patterns which you no longer feel identified with, because it is only when you totally strip yourselves from an old idea that you allow the broad potential of what is new to get to your lives. As long as you go on, always rooted to even a small part of what is old, out of fear of losing it, that false security is shutting-off the possibility for whatever is new to manifest itself. So, trust, fully, that, as you are aligned in the Frequency of Love, you are perfect and safe.

Thank you very much.

- Athos

CONCLUSION:

If we really want to reach our Original State of Being, Unified with the Source of All Creation, we first must perform an inner tuning work with our Divine Essence, and feel, from the heart, if we enter in resonance with the messages and teachings we have received in our life.

Then, with that faith and full conviction that this is the Truth, we must detach from all that has been established and imposed by the old matrix, or tridimensional reality, that maintains us prisoners and unable to open-up to the New Fifth Dimensional Reality that is opening-up before our eyes, although they are unable to perceive it, for being blinded by patterns that do not allow us to evolve towards the New Reality that is more real than that which we have been jailed in, during millennia.

Thus, we must let go and free ourselves from all material attachment, within our Consciousness and daily actions, to be able to open-up and accede the evolutionary level we want to reach, from the heart, and which we can now attain, if we want to.

Furthermore, like the Inka, the Qoya and their priests did it, in this work, it is essential to purify our complex terrestrial vehicle; that is, the bodies, as much physical, as energetic, emotional, intellectual and spiritual, considering that we are soul, before being body, incarnated in the Third Dimension. That way, within our capacities, Consciousness Awakening level and willpower, we will be able to start living our life, from an All Inclusive and Unified Holistic Perspective which is proper to the Fifth Dimension, as well as to its laws and rules, through Love, in such a way that all bipolarity, opposition and antagonism might disappear from our thought patterns, words and actions.

So, this is the Major Challenge which is awaiting us, and that we can mitigate, if we live in, with and for Nature, giving the best of our love to our Great and Generous Mother Earth who always has sheltered, fed and protected us, throughout millennia, because it is She who shall help us, more than anyone else, to face and overcome the numerous challenges that are forthcoming, in this inter-dimensional transition period.
